escape.
breathe.
unwind.

The Sensual World of the Dordogne - Fall 2019

Give voice to subtle, profound and potent story that is yours to tell!

Come delve into the sensual world of the Dordogne. The perfect place to explore your creative writing and embrace your erotic intelligence.

Live in a beautiful French village. Peel back the layers, banish your critic and tend your inner flirt and secret garden within.

Sept 15 - Sept 22, 2019
$1399 pp (shared room)

*Itinerary Highlights - 6 nights, 7 days**

Goal: to create a living breathing erotic character

- Supportive and encouraging daily writing practices to awaken your imagination.
- Ice-breaking writing prompts and fun exercises to open your powers of observation.
- Spicy scenarios to kick-start your personal exploration for your character.
- Visit to Josephine Baker's Chateau and Collette's Gardens for inspiration.
- Daily Continental Breakfast, local transport, Chateaux and Garden entry tickets.
- Full kitchen to co-op cook. Groceries are inexpensive; restaurants $13 to $35.

**We can help with easiest transport option to arrive to the village.

Reading recommendations: Colette's short-story collection: The Pure and the Impure and her novella Cheri; Angela Carter's short story collection: The Bloody Chamber.

Your host, Laurel Paluck is an avid reader, published writer and art's educator who creates opportunities for writers to explore ways to express their authentic selves. As artistic producer of Atelier Ludmila, she designs and conducts creative workshops; produces theatrical events and hosts cabarets. She can be found on Facebook and LinkedIn.
